

RADFORD.

WATER FACILITIES.

East Radford Will Soon Be Supplied.

The citizens of the Eastern section are jubilant over the prospect of getting water facilities in a short time. The City Council is in receipt of a letter from Mr. W. J. Kenderline, superintendent of the Radford Land and Improvement Company...

BREVITIES.

For the past three months the stove works has been shut down, but now the encouraging news comes that in a short time the management will commence work again with increased facilities.

Pursuant to a general call a large number of gentlemen and ladies assembled at the Baptist Church last night for the purpose of completing the organization of the Young Men's Christian Association.

H. L. Kirk returned to-day from a Northern business trip.

Prof. G. W. Miles, of Emory and Henry College, was in the city to-day.

S. D. Numan, the popular foreman of the Norfolk and Western shops, is quite sick at his home in the east ward.

A snow storm with all the appearance of a Western blizzard is now raging. The mercury is fast lowering to zero, much to every one's discomfort.

J. J. Coleman, an old man, 60 years of age, was knocked off a bridge on the Clinch Valley extension yesterday, but not dangerously hurt.

L. P. Miles has just arrived from the University, to take charge of the Radford Enterprise.

Candidates for municipal affairs are stirring like busy bees.

The firm of Kearly & Crockett is receiving a large number of letters inquiring for small farms in Southwest Virginia.

THE ATHLETIC CLUB.

A Movement to Organize a Gymnasium Meeting With Success.

The prospect of Roanoke having a first-class athletic club is at present very flattering. Since the first meeting which was held on March 12, the gentlemen who are interested in the movement have been actively at work and have secured a large number of subscribers.

It is the intention of the promoters of the scheme to provide a first-class gymnasium for the benefit of the members and to do all in their power to promote the different branches of athletic sport.

The club hopes to be able to give athletic games both this spring and next fall, open to all amateurs in the city. The spring games will probably be given on May 30, and will include running, jumping, hurdle racing, pole vaulting, putting the shot, throwing the hammer, etc.

It is expected that this club will meet with the success that a first-class organization of its kind deserves, and there is no doubt that the generous-hearted people of this city will aid this very worthy enterprise.

There will be another meeting of the club next Tuesday night for the purpose of permanent organization and also to devise means for an entertainment to be given in the near future for the purpose of fitting out the gymnasium.

Justice Williams yesterday fined John Ward $5 and costs for stealing a gross of matches out of a car that had the end pulled out, at Forest, Va.

David W. Flickwir, general superintendent of the Eastern division of the Norfolk and Western railroad, gave a farewell dinner to Vice-President and General Manager Jos. H. Sands at Hotel Roanoke last night.

The dinner, which was a sumptuous one, was given in President Kimball's private apartments, the rooms being handsomely decorated with flowers and plants.

Mr. Flickwir sat at the head of the table, with Mr. Sands at the foot. The other gentlemen present were Messrs. Lucien B. Cooke, O. H. Royer, Frank Huger, J. Allen Watts, W. W. Coe, H. S. Trout, F. C. Hippey, R. H. Soule and Henry Fairfax.
